A Church Without Walls

This Bible Reading Plan is adapted from Robert Murray McCheyne's plan, and takes us, as a church, right through the Bible in two years.

We take two years to read the Old Testament, but read right through the New Testament every year. We read the four Gospels twice each year, to keep us constantly focusing on the life, ministry and words of Jesus.

We also read through the Psalms every year. You will see that each day has a New Testament and an Old Testament reading, with a psalm on alternate days. July and August give us a bit of "catching up time"!

Our aim of having a church Bible reading plan is that by reading the same passages together we can share what has been a blessing to us, or talk about what we've found difficult.

The overall aim is for this to be a blessing to the church, not a duty or a burden. We can "opt in" or "opt out". In 1842, when McCheyne wrote this original reading scheme he was careful to say that it was meant to be a blessing not a burden.

If you want to try to store up God's word in your heart, each month also has a verse or passage for us to try to commit to memory.
